2L Jenny Tsz

My name is Sam. Yesterday something interesting happened to me at the library. While I was reading in the library, I felt a little hot. So naturally I went to open the windows.

Many birds were singing outside on the tree near the window. Suddenly, a bird came flying in out of nowhere through the window I had opened. At first, I did not pay any attention to it, however it began to sing and it created a lot of loud chirping noises. It made my head spin as I could not focus reading. I picked up a rubber band and shot it at the bird. SWOOSH! It was a perfect hit! But the bird got really angry and started attacking me. I quickly ran to the reception and asked the librarian for help.

In the end, the librarian found a net which he used to catch the bird. He released the bird back to the wild and closed the window. As for me, I had to go to the hospital because I recklessly got hurt by attacking a bird.
