

Diary: A Lucky Birthday

6F Yu Shu Tung, Sophie

Sunday, 19th September, 20xx

Sunny

Last night, I had a buffet dinner with my family at a hotel to celebrate Grandma's birthday. It was thrilling!

Dad took me to Fun Fun Hotel to have a buffet with my Grandma and mother after school. When we arrived at the restaurant there, Grandma and Mother had been sitting there and waiting for a long time. However, they didn't feel angry with us. We started to eat after we greeted. Dad and I went out to take some food. Dad took some spaghetti for everyone. I knew that Grandma loved eating prawn, and we like it too! Therefore, I took a lot of prawn. "You are a smart boy, Gary. I don't even know Grandma likes eating prawn!" praised Mum. I was overjoyed.

After we ate the dinner, we were full. "Grandma, we have a surprise for you!" Mum said excitedly and gave a signal to a waiter not far away. Next, walking towards us, he held an appealing and delicious birthday cake. "Happy Birthday my dear lady!" the waiter yelled with an amusing voice, which made my grandma feel amused. She was as happy as a lark. "Thank you!" she said happily. We sang a birthday song to her and enjoyed the cake.

Afterwards, Dad went to a cashier to pay for the meal. "$3000, please," the cashier said. "Ok," Dad answered. He took the wallet out. His face turned pale because he found that there was no cash. "Oh no! I forgot to withdraw money from an ATM," he said secretly. Standing next to him, I could hear it very clearly. I responded calmly, "Don't panic, Dad. We can seek help from Mum." Hoping that Mum and Grandma could help, we returned to our seats with embarrassing faces. Nevertheless, they didn't have enough money either because Dad had told us it was his treat. Thus, we started feeling anxious.

When we were worrying, a man approached us and said, " Hey Ken. We haven't seen each other for a long time. How are you?" This was Uncle Peter, who was my dad's previous colleague, but they haven't met each other for more than ten years. Luckily, little has my dad's appearance changed so Uncle Peter could recognize him. Without hesitation, Dad told him about our embarrassing situation. Surprisingly, Uncle Peter was very willing to help us pay for the meal and settled the payment at the end.

Today, Dad paid him back. I think we were so lucky last night. Maybe that's because it's Grandma's birthday, but I hope this won't happen again.

Diary: A Lucky Birthday

6F Ho Pui Yee, Soey

Sunday, 19th September, 20xx

Sunny

Last night, I had a buffet dinner with my family at a hotel to celebrate Grandma's birthday. We went to the hotel by our private car. I was as happy as a lark because I had never had a buffet dinner before. My friends told me that there were unbelievable types of food available. I had already prepared a must-try-food list before going to the hotel.

After a while, we arrived at Happy Hotel. I saw lots of different palatable food such as pancakes, sushi and colourful candies. It was a food paradise. After getting our seats, Dad and I couldn't wait to choose the food in the food bar because we were starving. Dad chose spaghetti while I chose prawn. Both of them were delicious! We all relished the meal.

After the delicious meal, it's time to sing a happy birthday song and eat a birthday cake. The waiter took the birthday cake to us and said, "Here is your birthday cake. Happy birthday!" We were very glad. Grandma was over the moon since she didn't know that we had prepared a giant birthday cake for her. We sang the song happily and ate the cake.

When we were ready to leave, my dad went to a cashier to pay for the meal. He took out the wallet. However, there was no money. He suddenly noticed that he left it at home. He felt worried. Having no ideas, Dad returned to us and told Mum about that secretly, fearing that Grandma would hear this embarrassing thing. Luckily, my mum had a mobile payment application in her phone. Finally, she settled the payment. Mum didn't scold

Dad but mocked him, " Remember to check your wallet before giving a treat!"

After this incident, I felt lucky. I learnt that we should prepare well before we take action. I hope this will not happen again.

The Hunger Island

6H Mak Sau Ming, Linus

On a good sunny day, Chip, Kipper, Biff and Nadim were watching an advertisement about some children lived in hunger. Chip said, 'Oh! The children are poor! Can we help them?' Kipper answered. 'There are some words which are written as call 29995292 to give money to these children.' 'But we don't have money to donate because we need to donate at least $100!'

Suddenly, the magic key started to glow and brought them to an island. Also, they met a little boy called Henry. When they were walking to the village, Chip asked Nadim quietly, 'Why was he so thin? What happened to him?' Nadim answered, 'I don't know. If we follow him until we find that village, we can ask him.'

Then, they walked to the village. Everyone was thin like Henry too! Nadim asked, 'What happened to this town? Is there not enough food?' 'In this village, nobody knows how to plant so every day we just eat two fruits and some frogs,' said Henry. They shouted, 'Frogs? You can't eat frogs. It's dirty!' The magic key glowed again. When they went home, they decided to help Henry so they went to the library to find a book which could tell them how to plant.

They found a book and learnt that it's hard to plant so they used a note to record the information. The key glowed once more. They went back to the village and taught the villagers how to plant. Eventually, they can eat rice, corns, tomatoes and carrots. Henry was thankful to them.

At the end, every child gave 25 dollars to help those children who are mentioned in the advertisement.

No Tricking!

6H Mak Ho Hin, Marcus

One day, it was Biff's birthday. Chip, Kipper, Nadim, Floppy, Mom and Dad celebrated her birthday at home.

Soon, Mom took the birthday cake and put it on the desk. Then Mom turned off the light and they sang a song. 'Happy Birthday to you! Happy Birthday to..... you!' Then Biff made a wish. She wished that her family would be in harmony. When she was making a wish, Chip put the cake on Biff's face. 'Ha! Ha!' Chip laughed. Biff was very angry but he didn't care about her feeling. 'Oh Chip! This isn't funny for you and us,' said Dad disappointedly. Mom replied, 'You should say sorry to Biff. Understand?' 'I won't say sorry to her,' said Chip naughtily. Then the magic key glowed.

They went to the forest. The forest had a lot of trees and some apples on the ground. And there were a few animals. Soon, they saw the witch. She always made bad things to attack the animals. All of a sudden, she attacked Floppy. She used a rope to tighten Floppy's neck. It got hurt. 'Help me! Help me!' screamed Floppy. He felt afraid. 'How should we do to save Floppy?' asked Biff.

'I have an idea,' said Chip. Kipper and Nadim asked, 'What ideas can you think of to attack her?' Then Chip and Biff used the slightshot and on the other side, Kipper and Nadim took the stone to smash the witch. They started to attack the witch. She felt very mad. But they never stopped fighting. Finally, she left the garden. 'Hooray!' They said gladly. The magic key glowed again. Dad and Mom called them to eat the birthday cake. Chip learnt that they shouldn't play tricks on others. Soon, he said sorry to Biff and then she forgave him.

A letter to the Principal

6L Lewis Lau

Dear Principal Yeung,

I write this letter because I want to talk about a country which needs your help. That is Syria. Syria is a country which has many serious problems. Syria is a dry and hot country which is in middle east. There are 17 million people. However there is a war which causes many problems.

First of all, many houses are destroyed in the war. In the war, the army throws bombs to attack the villages. Sometimes the bones are thrown on the houses. As a result, there are over 10 million people who are homeless. The people feel desperate and their lives and properties are lost.

Second, the local people are in great need of food and medicine. In this war, shops are closed. The people cannot buy daily necessities, such as food and medicine. Moreover, people cannot go to work because of the serious war. They have no money to buy anything. It makes their lives very hard.

Lastly, there is a refugee crisis. We have just mentioned that people there have a hard life. People want to leave Syria and that comes up the refugee crisis. According to the statistics, There are over 5 million people leave Syria.

To raise money for the people in Syria, I have thought of some ideas. First we can hold an "No electricity day" at school. We don't use any electricity for an hour. Then students can ask sponsor to donate money for the hours that we don't use electricity. Second, We can run a second-hand store. We can connect old books, toys and clothes from our schoolmates. Then we can sell those things at the second-hand store. Last, We can Is sell raffle tickets. Although we may not raise a lot of money, we can still try our best. We can donate the money to the charity. You can buy emergency food, water and medicine. Also it can help rebuild houses, hospitals and schools.

Now many countries need our help. I think we should lend our helping hands to them. "Give hope for the people in need. Your helping hand can save many lives!"

Yours sincerely,
Lewis Lau

A letter to the Principal

6L Selah Tang

Dear Principal Yeung,

I am writing to tell you about a country in crisis. Nepal is a poor country which is now facing many serious problems. Nepal is located in South Asia and twenty-eight million people live there. There are many mountains in Nepal. Nepalese faced an awful earthquake. So they are desperate for help.

First, many houses and buildings were destroyed and seriously damaged during the earthquake. Most people lost their properties and family members. More than a quarter of people in Nepal are poor. Therefore, they have no money to rebuild their homes. As a result, thousands of people are homeless. Some of them make their own shelters to stay. However, sanitation is very terrible and they don't have clean water. Thus, they get sick easily. People feel depressed. Many of them try to leave Nepal to find a safe place to live.

Second, people don't have enough food and medicine. Food cannot be transported because there are lots of cracks and obstacles on the roads. So many people are suffering from malnutrition and they are as weak as babies. Some of them died of hunger. Besides, they are still waiting for the rescue team and relief supplies.

In order to raise money for the disaster victims in Nepal, I suggest holding a running competition. We can run at the nearest sports field with all our schoolmates, friends and parents. We can also ask our family members and relatives to sponsor us. Also, we can run a second-hand stall. We can ask teachers and schoolmates to donate some toys and books. Moreover, we can put up a poster so that we can let more people support us. The money raised can be donated to the charity and can buy essential food and medicine for Nepalese.

Today we live in a safe and comfortable place. We are so lucky and delightful. We need to help and care the places where disasters are taking place. Act now! "Nepalese are waiting for your help !"

Yours sincerely,
Selah Tang

The Magical Game World

6T Matthew

One day, Biff invited Chip and Kipper to play Switch games at his home. Biff said excitedly, "Let's have a game party now!" Kipper and Chip replied, "Yes! Yeah!" Biff got a new game about Pokemon to share with them. They were catching the Pokemon. They were excited.

Five minutes later, they still couldn't catch any Pokemon. They were worried that they couldn't catch the Pokemon. Chip asked, "Is this Pokemon good?" Kipper replied, "I think it is good." Biff said, "This is beautiful." When they were talking, Floppy was focusing on the game too. He liked the game too.

Suddenly, the magic key glowed and took Biff, Chip and Kipper to the game world. At that time, Floppy started to bark because the children disappeared. In the game world, Biff, Chip and Kipper saw a big Pikachu. Its power was out of control. Pikachu used the one hundred thousand thunderbolt to attack them because Pikachu thought they were its enemy. Luckily, the children escaped from Pikachu's attack. Biff asked, "Are you OK?" Chip and Kipper said, "I am OK!"

At that time, they thought of a very important hint! Kipper said, "In this game, we can use a Pokemon ball to catch Pokemon." Biff said, "OK! I will go to the right to find it!" Chip said, "OK! I will look for it on the left." Then, they started to find a Pokemon ball. Finally, they found it in Biff's backpack. They used the Pokemon ball to catch Pikachu and captured it.

In the end, the magic key glowed again and took them back home. They found that they finished the game by catching Pikachu on the TV screen. They had a Pokemon ball too. Biff said, "I love adventure very much because we can always try new things!" Kipper said, "Me too!"

An Adventure with the Giant Cockroaches

6T Miriam

One day Chip, Biff, Kipper, Nadim and Floppy were playing in Biff's room. They were watching a TV program. It was about cockroaches.

"Wow! The cockroaches are cool!" said Chip. "I like them! I want to have a cockroach as my pet!" Kipper said. Floppy thought, "I hate cockroaches!" "Well, it sounds interesting!" Biff said. At that moment, a cockroach appeared. The children started to catch it. Biff put a box in front of the cockroach. It ran into the box. "The cockroaches are cute!" Nadim said.

Suddenly, the magic key started to glow. The magic key took the children to a strange place. There weren't any trees, grass or flowers! "It was a strange place!" said Biff. "Yes! There are nothing! Only sand!" said Kipper. Suddenly, some giant cockroaches appeared! They chased the children! "Run!" shouted Chip. The children ran and ran. They ran as fast as they could. "It is horrible!" thought Floppy, "I hate adventure!"

"Look ! There is a cave" shouted Kipper, "Let's run into it!" The children ran into the cave and hid themselves. "Oh ! What is it?" said Biff. She found a special bottle inside the cave. " Wow ! It is a magic medicine!" said Nadim. "It can make people shrink to ten centimetres," said Chip. He was reading the words on the bottle. "Ah ! We can give this medicine to the cockroaches, then they will become small!" said Biff. "What a good idea!" said Kipper excitedly. So, the children walked out of the cave. Biff dropped the potion in the river.

The cockroaches were thirsty. They drank the water from the river. Soon, they started to shrink until they were only ten centimetres tall. The children were safe! "Hooray!" shouted the children. They were glad. The magic key glowed again !

The children went back to their home. They set the cockroach free. "Phew ! I don't want to see any cockroaches anymore!" laughed Chip.

A Great Adventure

6S Liu Hoi Yan, Cheryl

On some perfectly normal day, as normal as it can get in the Robinson household. Chip, Barbara also known as Biff, Kipper and Nadim were in Biff's room, watching a horror movie. Floppy was there too. The movie was about a vampire that traps children in mansions. Just as they were getting to the exciting part, the magic key glowed, and transported them to a mansion that looked exactly like the one in the movie.

The atmosphere was creepy and the children knew they needed to escape. The mastermind was a fan pie right now I wanted the children's blood. 'You have two hours, if you finish this 'escape room', I'll let you go. The first clue will be found in a portrait of the first president of America, feel free to break anything you want time is running, tick tock,' the mastermind spoke through a radio. The children were scared but determined to escape. Thus, they started to get to work.

The children split up so they could find clues more quickly. Biff went with Kipper and Floppy while Chip went with Nadim to the portrait of George Washington. Biff, Kipper and Floppy found a door which needed a key and a code to open it. Chip and Nadim looked at the back of the portrait and found a key in the paper with the code which was "a5158". And so, they met up with the others to open the locked door. After they unlocked the door, they found a Sudoku puzzle which revealed the code to the front door. They started to do the puzzle and completed it in 10 minutes and escaped the mansion with 15 minutes to spare. The key glowed and brought them home.

'Phew! We made it back in one piece! Well, five pieces but anyway, I think we all agree not to watch this movie again right?' Kipper said. Everyone else nodded their head in agreement.

The Cursed Dragon

6S Johnny Chan Tsz Yu

Once upon a time, Biff, Chip, Kipper and Floppy were at home. They were very bored because they had nothing to do in the house.

Then, Biff came up with a brilliant idea. She said, 'What if I go out and play football in the backyard?' 'Good idea!' Chip and Kipper exclaimed. After that, they ran to there and Floppy followed them behind. At the backyard, they played together happily, but when time goes by, they wanted to play ball games instead of playing other games. 'Get off, Kipper! I want to kick the ball!' Biff grumbled. Kipper shouted, 'Hey! I am having fun now! You can't just ruin it!' So, they fought with one another. Floppy which is next to them thought, 'I wish they could stop fighting for now.' Then, the magic key glowed. 'I should stop making wished from now...' Floppy groaned with an annoying sound.

The magic key took Biff, Chip, Kipper and Floppy to an enormous island in the middle of the ocean. They looked at a sign which says 'Evil dragons lair, Be careful'. Just when they are reading the sign, a ridiculous big dragon appeared on top of their heads. It roared very loudly that they needed to cover their ears with their hands. Biff, Chip and Kipper yelled, 'What is that? It's so big!' Then, the dragon chased them with its powerful legs. 'Run!' They all shouted.

But obviously, they were no match for the dragon. Thankfully, when the dragon got really close to them, a wizard suddenly appeared in front of them and took them out of this dangerous place. He took them to his safe and cozy cave lab. He said, 'You all should not be here, there is a dragon on the island which got cursed by a evil witch.' 'Wait, it is cursed? Does that mean that it is originally good at the beginning?' Kipper asked. 'Yes,' the wizard replied sadly. 'It was actually my friend, but it got lost once before when we are having a walk in the woods. It went to the witch's home and got cursed by her.' Chip and Biff nodded their heads and said, 'Do we have a chance to free it with your enchanted swords?' They asked. 'What? You want to free it with only your body and the sword? No! It's too dangerous! I won't let you go and risk your life with such a thing!' The wizard boomed with fear. 'With your enchanted potions, armor, bow and sword?' Chip asked. 'Hmmm... I guess that's a deal.' The wizard said, looking at Chip, unsure. 'May I go too?' Kipper asked with excitement. Biff and Chip exclaimed, 'No Kipper. You're too small to fight with such an enormous dragon, so please don't,' Kipper then understood the casualties it could cause so he nodded and said 'OK'.

Later, Biff and Chip wore the armor and drank the potion that made them even stronger than usual. After that, they came out with the wizard and took the key from Floppy because they needed it to unlock the locket on the dragon's neck. They started to climb a mountain to find the dragon.

After a while, they found it and slowly climbed on it carefully, trying not to make it awake. But unfortunately, the dragon woke up and flew into the air, bringing Biff and Chip too. After a few minutes, the wizard finally saw that Biff and Chip, clinging on the dragon's back and took the key out of his pocket. He said, 'I am determined to help anyone in need.' This sentence boosted his confidence, so he went towards it. He put it into the locket and turned it. 'Crack' The sound tumbled through the air. The locket was unlocked! The dragon immediately regained its own control and flew back to the wizard. 'Buddy! It's nice to get you back, I missed you!' The wizard cried in tears. The dragon roared and let the wizard to touch its head. The dragon gave Chip a dragon scale as a gift for saving him. Biff, Chip and Kipper were touched and cried. Then, the magic key glowed. 'Looks like it's time for you to go...' The wizard said. 'Goodbye wizard. We hope to see you again in the future.' Chip said to him. They waved to each other and they were back at home.

After they arrived at home, they learnt that they should share with one another. Also, they should help with one another so they could achieve things easily without parents help. So in the end, they played football together happily.

The Ending of The Evil Genie

6FRC Jerry Kwong

Suddenly, the magic key glowed. It took the children back to the island. They felt nervous and puzzled because they didn't know how to save Floppy. "How can we find Floppy?" said Biff nervously. "Let's find Hassan and Kamar and ask them," suggested Nadim. So they went to search for Floppy.

After a while, they met Hassan and Kamar. "Where is Floppy?" asked Kipper. "Don't worry. I know where he is," said Hassan confidently. Then Hassan led them to the mountain.

When they arrived at the mountain, they saw Floppy which was in the cage on the mountain top. They were excited. The genie was on Floppy's side. The big bird exploded because it couldn't withstand the mighty force. "The ...," said Chip excitedly. "Sh!" said Kamar quietly. The genie heard the noise and saw the children. He felt surprised. He wanted to kill the children but he couldn't because he has already done two bad things that day. "The genie has no power now. It's a good chance to save Floppy!" said Kipper pleasantly. Therefore, the children used some stones to break the cage and Floppy could run away. The genie was very angry, but he couldn't do anything. Hassan put the genie into the bottle. He tied a stone to the bottle and threw it into the sea. The magic key glowed suddenly. The children went back home.

Finally, the children rescued Floppy and took him home safely. The children were relieved. The genie stayed in the sea forever. From this incident, the children learnt that they should cherish and protect Floppy.

The Ending of The Evil Genie

6FRC Angela Szeto

Suddenly, the magic key glowed. It took the children back to the island. They felt worried because the dog was in danger. “We must save Floppy!” said Biff bravely. So they went to search for Floppy.

After a while, they met Hassan and Kamar. “Can you help us find Floppy?” asked Kipper. “Don’t worry. I know where he is,” said Hassan confidently. Then Hassan led them to the mountain top.

When they arrived at the mountain top, they saw Floppy and the big bird. Floppy was kept in a cage. They said, “Look! That’s Floppy!” They wanted to save Floppy but the evil genie discovered them. The genie ordered the bird to catch the children but he couldn’t because he has already done two bad things that day. “The genie has no power now. It’s a good chance to save Floppy!” said Biff. Therefore, the children climbed up the mountain quickly and unlocked the cage. The genie had no power, so he could only let them go.

Finally, the children could save Floppy and took him home safely. They felt joyful. The genie was angry. From this incident, the children learnt that they should take care of their dog carefully.